

Bruce Hildenbrand, CPIM

Bruce Hildenbrand has been an I/T Architect at the IBM Corporation in Poughkeepsie, New York for four years. His work is concentrated in the areas of I/T infrastructure, and SAP Basis. Prior to IBM, Bruce worked at Philips Components in Saugerties, New York for 17 years. At Philips he contributed in the areas manufacturing, industrial engineering, quality control, and more recently, in logistics management and information technology. Bruce joined the Mid-Hudson Chapter of APICS in 1984, and served as Chapter President in 1985-1987. He was again elected to serve as President beginning in 2003. Bruce earned CPIM certification in 1990.